

An aerial photograph of a large grassy field, identified as Ruel Field, with black lines delineating its sections. The field is divided into three main areas labeled A, B, and C. Area A is on the right, Area B is in the center, and Area C is on the left. Three specific locations are marked with numbers: '1' is in the upper right corner near a road; '2' is in the upper center near a road; and '3' is in the center-left area. A dense line of trees runs along the bottom edge of the field. To the left of the field is a residential neighborhood with houses and streets. To the right is a commercial area with a large building and a parking lot. A yellow banner at the bottom contains the text 'Oxford Recreation Commission' and 'Field Designations - Ruel Field'.
