The diagram illustrates a cross-section of a magnetic disk. It features several concentric tracks, with one track labeled 'R/W' (Read/Write) and another labeled 'OR' (Overwrite). A read/write head is shown positioned above the disk, with a dashed line indicating its path across the tracks. The head is labeled with a circled '2' and a circled 'A'. Above the head, a circled 'E' is shown. The right side of the diagram includes the text 'FEE' and '10'.

ALE: 1" = 100'
